A LARGENIST.

Intercepted in the Nick of Time on the Kinau.

A man named Henry Seyer was arrested on the steamer Kinau yesterday afternoon by Police Officer David Kaapa, on a warrant caused to be issued by Mrs. John Williams a few minutes before two o'clock. Seyer was at the Police Station charged with the larceny of $106, the property of the complainant. In the Police Court this morning Mrs. Williams testified that Seyer had been living at her residence, Palama, for the past month. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock she missed her purse and came to town to report her loss to her husband. As she was returning home she saw Seyer on the tramcar coming toward town. Her suspicions were aroused and she awaited Seyer's return home. Not showing up Mrs. Williams went to the Police Station and a warrant was issued just in time to intercept Seyer on the Kinau. Of the money $103 was recovered, the other $3 being missing. His Honor found there was probable cause to believe that conviction of larceny in the second degree would take place before a jury, and committed the prisoner for trial to the next term of the Supreme Court.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Auspicious Opening of the Session of 1892.

Speech From the Throne by Her Majesty Liliuokalani.

Queen Liliuokalani opened the first session of the Legislature in her reign at 12 o'clock to-day. The Legislative Chamber had been nicely prepared for the occasion. In place of the large desk at which the President sits during a session, and the Judges of the Supreme Court at term, a throne was placed, covered with a rich yellow feather cloak, in front of which stood a dainty little table. On either side of the dais in front was a large stand of lilies interspersed with flowers, and there was a variegated bouquet in the middle.

Seats were placed in sections for the Nobles and Representatives and special guests. At the side wall to the right were chairs for wives of Ministers, Judges and Her Majesty's staff, Bishop Willis and wife. In front of these was a row occupied by Governor Everett of Maui, Governor Rice of Kaula, Captain Sampson of the U. S. F. S. San Francisco and Captain Reiter of the U. S. S. Thetis. Along the opposite wall were ranged members of the Privy Council and their ladies, then the Consular corps and ladies in front. Beyond the members' entrance on the side were four chairs for reporters, only a representative each from the Advertiser and BULLETIN availing themselves of the privilege. In front of the reporters were chairs for Rev. R. H. Hoes, chaplain of the San Francisco, and wife, and Rev. Mr. Ostrum and wife. On the opposite side, but facing the platform, were the officers of U. S. naval ships in port in uniform. The middle sections were devoted to the Nobles and Representatives, with seats for their lady friends behind and back of these the general public.

Of the Diplomatic corps there were present His Excellency J. L. Stevens, United States Minister Plenipotentiary, Major J. H. Wodehouse, Commissioner and Consul-General for Great Britain; Mons. Vizzavona, acting Commissioner for France, with the acting Chancellor, Mr. W. M. Giffard; and Mr. Masaki, Japanese Commissioner. Consuls present comprised Mr. H. W. Severance, U. S. Consul-General; Mr. F. A. Schaefer, Consul for Italy and Dean of the Corps; Mr. H. W. Schmidt, Consul for Sweden and Norway; Mr. H. F. Gläse, German Consul; Mr. J. F. Hackfeld, for Russia; Mr. H. Renjes, Spain and Mexico, and Mr. T. R. Walker, British Vice-Consul.

Four large kahili bearers in feather capes and tall hats stood two on each side of the throne, holding aloft their stately emblems, and were joined by the Queen's special kahili bearer just before the entry of the royal procession. At 12 o'clock a royal salute from the shore battery announced that the Queen had left the Palace. A few minutes later the wives of the Chief Justice, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Minister of the Interior, and Second Associate Justice—Mrs. Judd, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Spencer and Mrs. Dole respectively—entered and took their places to the right. Governors Everett and Rice and the wives of members of H. M.'s staff were escorted to their seats, and then Cols. Iaukea, Bertelmann, Boyd, Richardson and Holt, and Captain Liliuokalani, of Her Majesty's staff, preceded the Queen and royal family into the chamber. Her Majesty entered, escorted by Chief Justice the Hon. A. F. Judd, and attended by Major the Hon. J. W. Robertson, Chamberlain, Mesdames Wilson and Clark, ladies-in-waiting, and train bearers. The Queen was accompanied by His Excellency A. S. Cleghorn, Governor of Oahu, and Princess Kawananakoa and Kalaianakole. Ministers Parker, Widemann, Spencer and Whiting entered a little in advance of the royal party took their positions standing, together with Judges Bickerton and Dole, directly in front of the platform. Her Majesty was dressed in a black broad cloth silk dress with full train. On her left breast she wore the Star of the Crown of Hawaii, a silver and diamond ornament in her hair, and a crimson sash suspended from the right shoulder. The ladies-in-waiting were richly dressed in black silk with lavender trimmings and lavender head dresses.

After prayer by Rev. J. Waiamau, Chaplain of the Legislature of 1890, the Queen read from a handsome portfolio, handed to her by the Chamberlain, the speech from the throne. She read first the native version, then the English, in clear, modulated tones, but people near the lobbies could not hear the words owing to an irrepressible hubbub outside. Following is the speech:

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.
Nobles and Representatives:

Since the Legislature of this Kingdom last assembled, death has taken from us your lamented King and My beloved brother. His reign of nearly seventeen years marked an extraordinary epoch in our country's history, an era of unparalleled commercial advancement, of educational enlightenment and political progress. His late Majesty's memory will be held sacred by his friends, and his successful labors in the interests of his people properly estimated and respected by all.

The decree of Providence and the Constitution of the Kingdom having called Me to occupy the Throne of Hawaii, it is My earnest prayer that Divine assistance may be vouchsafed to enable Me to discharge the duties of the exalted position to the advantage of My people and the permanent benefit of Hawaii.

With the consent of the Nobles of the Kingdom I have appointed Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria Kaiulani Kaulam Lunalilo Kalaianuihalapala as My successor.

Fully recognizing that by the Constitution and laws of the Kingdom My station is that of a Constitutional Monarch, accepting the will of My people as pronounced by them, through their representatives in the Legislature and My Constitutional Advisers the Ministers of the Crown, I shall firmly endeavor to preserve the autonomy and absolute independence of this Kingdom, and to assist in perpetuating the rights and privileges of all who are subject to our laws and in promoting their welfare and happiness.

I am gratified to state that My relations with Foreign Powers are of the most cordial and friendly nature.

The treaty of commercial reciprocity between this Kingdom and the United States which has hitherto proved so beneficial to both countries in building up and maintaining a larger commerce and exchange of productions has been seriously affected by tariff legislation made by the Congress of the United States, the effect of which on our principal industry is being severely felt. I trust that such legislation as may tend to relieve the consequent depression will receive your early and careful attention.

I recommend the appointment of a Special Commission to ascertain the most practical manner of developing and expanding the several industrial and agricultural resources of the Kingdom; and more especially with a view to enable small land holders to add to the wealth and progress of the Kingdom by raising such products as the soil and climate of the country foster.

The probability of a decrease in the revenues of the Kingdom requires economy and retrenchment in the expenditure of the public funds; but I earnestly hope that every effort will be made to carry out all necessary internal improvements throughout the Kingdom.

I note with pleasure that surveys are being made between the western coast of the United States of America and these Islands for the purpose of laying a submarine cable. I sincerely hope that every effort to connect Hawaii by an electric cable with the outside world will continue to receive your assistance.

I commend to your earnest attention the invitation received by My Government from the President of the United States of America to participate in the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus by sending an exhibit to the World's Columbian Exposition to be held at the city of Chicago in 1893.

My Ministers will submit for your consideration the Reports of their several Departments and the laws necessary for the welfare of the Kingdom and the promotion of the objects I have referred to.

NOBLES AND REPRESENTATIVES:
Invoking the blessing of Divine Providence upon your deliberations, I now declare the Legislature of the Kingdom open.

THE PROCESSION.

For half an hour before the opening the Royal Hawaiian Band, stationed around the Kamelameha statue in front of the Government building, played selections, and Hawaii Pono when the Queen arrived and departed. The Household Guards, under command of Col. Sam. Nowlein, formed a guard of honor on either side of the carriage drive. The Queen's state carriage was drawn by a span of black horses. Gov. Cleghorn rode by himself in the second carriage, the two Princes in the third, and ladies-in-waiting in the fourth. After the Queen's departure the band continued to play until the close of the sitting of the House, and then preceded the Guards in the march back to the Palace.

The crowd in the Government building was as large as on any other occasion, overflowing from the chamber to fill the corridors, and many had to content themselves with a position outside by the windows. Messrs. J. A. Hassinger, G. E. Smithies, Ed. Stiles and Geo. Ross were the ushers, performing their arduous duties with accomplished skill.

MEMBERS IN SESSION.

After the spectators had mostly dispersed, the House was called to order by Mr. Chas. Wilcox, Secretary of the Legislature of 1890. There was some discussion as to whether the election of a temporary president or the calling of the roll should take precedence. On a vote it was decided to call the roll, when the following members responded to their names:

JUST THINK

When in need of SOAP that you will be better suited every way by going to a store that keeps a large assortment of the article required.

We believe it may interest you to know that this store is that place.

This week we call your attention to a new soap in this market. As the manufacturers have not been in business for centuries they are willing to part with their products for less money than old established houses, and you receive the benefit.

Jas. S. Kirk & Co. are striving to make as good an article as the other soap makers and their Shandon Bells soap is equal to the best.

These cuts do not represent the size of the cakes, but the difference is in the price. The store that sells the best soap will sell the most soap. You are a judge of good soap.
